

Evercrafted

Emotion-Tagged Inventory Starter

72 faux florals. Pre-tagged. Pipeline-ready.

This starter inventory gives you 72 faux floral, greenery, texture, and accent items — each one tagged with primary emotion, secondary emotion tags, and color modifier notes. Plug it directly into the Evercrafted blueprint pipeline, or use it as a reference guide when sourcing and building your own inventory.

72 items — Focal florals, greenery, fillers, textures, ribbons, and accents

4 emotion tags per item — Primary, secondary, and color-modified emotion signals

Design use notes — How each item functions in a wreath build

Substitution notes — What to swap when a SKU isn't available

CSV + PDF — Machine-readable and human-readable in one purchase

How to use this inventory

Each item in this inventory has been tagged using the Evercrafted Floral Emotion Framework — a system that assigns emotional meaning to florals based on their botanical symbolism and specific color. The emotion tags are the inputs the blueprint engine uses to match your design intent to available materials.

The two ways to use this file

- 1. As your starter inventory. Upload the CSV directly into the Evercrafted pipeline. When you tell the blueprint engine you want a wreath that feels "warm and nostalgic," it will search for items tagged with those emotions and use them as your build materials.
- 2. As a sourcing reference. Use the design use notes and emotion tags to guide what you purchase. If you want to expand your inventory into "moody" or "dramatic" territory, you'll see immediately which SKU types to look for.

Reading a single row

Field	What it means	Example
SKU	Unique identifier for this item	EC-015
name	Descriptive item name	Dusty Blue Hydrangea Stem
floral_type	Botanical or material type	hydrangea
color	Specific color (not generic)	dusty blue category	Role in a wreath build	focal

design_use	When and how to use in a build	Signature Evercrafted accent substitution_note	What to swap if unavailable	—
confidence	Tag confidence level	high / medium

Confidence levels explained high — Tag derived directly from the Evercrafted Floral Emotion Reference Table. Botanical type and color both have verified entries.

medium — Tag inferred from botanical/cultural associations. Flower type not in the core reference table.
Reliable but verify against your design intent.

Quick-build emotional profiles

Not sure where to start? These four emotional profiles show which items from this inventory to pull for common design intentions. Each profile lists a focal, a secondary, a greenery, and a texture — a complete four-category starter set.

Warm & Nostalgic

Soft, layered, and familiar. The wreath that feels like it's always been there.

Focal: EC-006 Champagne Garden Rose + EC-003 Dusty Rose Peony

Secondary: EC-017 Dusty Rose Hydrangea + EC-012 Blush Ranunculus

Greenery: EC-028 Silver Dollar Eucalyptus + EC-031 Preserved Olive Branch

Texture: EC-039 Ivory Dried Pampas + EC-047 Ivory Berry Stem

Moody & Dramatic

Rich, layered, and commanding. For a wreath that stops the room.

Focal: EC-005 Burgundy Peony + EC-019 Burgundy Dahlia

Secondary: EC-025 Burgundy Hellebore + EC-023 Dusty Mauve Anemone

Greenery: EC-071 Preserved Copper Beech Leaf + EC-032 Preserved Salal

Texture: EC-043 Rust Dried Seed Pod + EC-046 Burgundy Berry Stem

Fresh & Botanical

Clean, green, and grounded. Nature at its most considered.

Focal: EC-004 White Peony + EC-022 White Anemone

Secondary: EC-018 Sage Hydrangea + EC-014 White Ranunculus

Greenery: EC-028 Silver Dollar Eucalyptus + EC-029 Seeded Eucalyptus

Texture: EC-059 Dried Baby's Breath + EC-042 Preserved Thistle

Harvest & Earthy

Warm, abundant, and grounded in the season. Autumn in tangible form.

Focal: EC-020 Terracotta Dahlia + EC-010 Dusty Mauve Garden Rose

Secondary: EC-013 Peach Ranunculus + EC-044 Natural Cotton Stem

Greenery: EC-070 Preserved Oak Leaf Spray + EC-028 Silver Dollar Eucalyptus

Evercrafted design canon

Every wreath built with this inventory should follow these core rules. They are not aesthetic preferences — they are the structural laws that make Evercrafted designs instantly recognizable.

Asymmetry is non-negotiable

No perfect mirroring. Focal clusters should sit at unexpected angles. The eye should have to search — and then be rewarded.

Use odd numbers for everything

3 focal clusters. 5 secondary blooms. 7 filler sprays. Odd numbers create visual tension and organic rhythm. Even arrangements look assembled, not grown.

Layer by category in build order

Base greenery first → secondary greenery → focal florals → filler → texture accents. Never anchor a focal before the greenery base is complete.

No cherry blossom, pussy willow, or twig-based blossoms

These are excluded from the Evercrafted design system. Note: EC-061 Birch Twig is included as a structural base element only — never as a featured bloom or visible accent.

Lights and ornaments are always optional — not decorative afterthoughts

If you add lights, they should be intentional — warm white micro-lights tucked deep into the greenery, not draped on top. Ornaments: 1-3 max, clustered not scattered.

Every wreath needs a season anchor

Before building, name the season. Palette, texture selection, and scale all follow from that anchor. A wreath without a season anchor has no emotional center.
